WRIT IF PREJUDICE

Comes now the Plaintiff to the above entitled action, who, under penalty of perjury, says the following:

That the Honorable James G Carr should be removed or recues himself from this case because in a preliminary hearing regarding this matter held on or about January 22, 2008, Judge Carr made one or more statement(s) of Fact that were not supported by evidence in the case, to wit:

That the premises of the Defendant is not a public forum.

This is a matter of FACT to be determined according to evidence; since there has not been a trial in the case, the statement of the judge is presumptive and prejudices the determination of the matter.
